

The Paula Matthews & Mark Remy Scholarship

The Paula Matthews & Mark Remy Scholarship has been established to support students pursuing studies in environment, sustainability, policy, or general education. Driven by their passion for our planet, Paula Matthews and Mark Remy aim to cultivate future leaders who will champion the cause of environmental conservation. They believe that by investing in education, they can help ensure the health and sustainability of our world for generations to come.